Typed Vision on the 8th of February, but was given on February 5, 2014
Wednesday morning shortly before 5:00 am.

Wednesday morning shortly before 5:00 am, the Lord woke me up. I wondered what time it was because I set my clock for 5:00 am and it hadn't went off as of yet. I laid there for a bit and then I begin to stir around. I finally got up and looked at the clock and it said 4:42 am. I wanted to go back to bed, but for some reason I just decided to stay up. In the mornings I always lift my hands and begin to thank Him for taking me through another night, tell Him how much I love him, and what a glorious privilege it is to be His child. I finally sat down in my chair and closed my eyes to wait on Him for a few minutes before reading the word, I know sooner closed my eyes when the Lord begin to say to me "Tamia, do you remember in my word when I spoke to Elijah and said my voice was not in the wind, not in the earthquake or in the fire, but it was a small still voice? I quickly perked up and begin to listen carefully. He went on to say that now that you are a new creature in me you know that I speak into your spirit, and it is in a small still voice. I said yes, he said that it is so important for my children to learn to hear this small still voice within- for it is vital to remove themselves of the danger in the last days.

He then began to speak to me about the prophets of old like Jeremiah, Samuel, Ezekiel and how vital it was, that they obeyed me and speak my word as I had given it to them. Also Jesus and the apostles shared of the coming days, and the signs of His coming, and how I gave Daniel a vision of the last days, and when he said the word vision, my eyes were opened and Lord said look, and as I focused, I seen a hand go up into the heavens and shake the stars, and as he did I seen one fall toward the earth- it landed in the ocean and when it hit it hit with such force the waters in the ocean went straight up in the air and it looked like it touched the sky.

Then I seen a window open it the heavens, and there in the window appeared a form like a man with a bow in his hand, and he began to place an arrow in it, he then pointed it toward the earth, he said this is my bow says the Lord and I am directing my arrows toward the nations that have rejected me.

Then He said behold, look again, as I did I saw horses in their separate stalls. I seen the black horse-blacker then any black that I had ever seen, and there was white horse, red horse, bay horse they snorting, shaking their heads as they pawed the ground and bray. I realized this was representation of the spirits to be loosed in the final days, and this shook me up because I thought this would happen after the body of Christ left the earth. Immediately the Lord said, yes my child but you are to warn all mankind of the things to come. Tell them I am turning the last page, and as he said that I seen a hand go to a book that appeared to be open to the last page, the hand turned it over, and then he closed the book. I knew there was more written on that page more to come, but the Lord was letting me know the time of the end is here. The time the old prophets spoke of over and over again, also Jesus and the apostles. As he continued to speak I seen two fingers move toward a small oil lamp, and place them over the wick and snuff out the flame. Then I heard him say, the lamp of the wicked is being put out, and their time has passed- run out- and will be no more. At the same time the Lord was speaking these things to me I witnessed so much movement in the heavens, a flurry of activity, as if in a rush for last minute preparations for something big that was going to happen. As I was thinking on all he had shared with me so far, my thoughts was directed toward Gods people, but before I could inquire he knew what I was going to ask- a highway appeared before me, and I seen the saints of God light upon it. As I looked I heard sounds of joy and dancing as they moved upward on this highway. They had such looks of satisfaction on their faces, and it appeared they were speaking of how they had received praise from the Lord of the stand they had made in the last days.

Then my attention was drawn toward voices I heard, they were angry voices, and as I was listening the Lord said behold look, and as I looked still hearing the voices I seen congregations of people with angry faces pointing and raising their voices against their pastors, saying we heard about your building plans, money, and programs over and over, but you failed to prepare us for what was coming. I was so sad, because the railing and anger showed against them caused the pastors to bow their heads in shame and leave their congregations.

As I thought on the things He had already shared with me, he began to speak to me again. This time he spoke to me about Israel. He said warn people about speaking against Israel. Tell them If they don't understand what is going on just pray and keep their mouth shut, and as Christians we are instructed to pray for the peace of Jerusalem, and not give the Lord rest until Israel is made a praise in the earth. He continued saying these are my dealings, and I will do what I said to Israel, and accomplish what I told them long ago. I am being stirred to anger says the Lord at the fingers being pointed, and blame being laid against Israel, be warned of your position and the stand you take better be on the right side. I see what man does not see, and nothing gets pass me. Many in the government of America are two-faced in their decisions and stand for Israel, but I see, and I hear says the Lord. I have stomached much, and been patient, but now you are pushing too far. There are those who say with their mouth that they are for my people Israel, but in theirs heart they are not. They pretend and speak swelling words to gain favor and flame to one group as if they were for Israel, but to another group of people they laugh and snare. I see what is going on, and I hear every word, see every plan negotiated against them. Behold I will come quickly, and my rewards are with me says the Lord.
